

Rachael Gillette
Chief Leadership Development Officer
Studer Community Institute

Rachael Gillette's unique background combines over 20 years of experience in leadership, coaching, training and speaking. Former Executive Director of Pensacola Young Professionals, she holds the Bar of England and Wales and a Bachelors in Law and American Studies from Keele University, England.

She practiced as a Barrister-at-Law for 9 years in England and as a Family Mediator on the First Judicial Circuit in Pensacola, FL. Rachael is a John Maxwell certified Coach, Trainer and Speaker.

Passionate about leadership development, organization growth and making a difference, Rachael is Chief Leadership Development Officer for Studer Community Institute, responsible for the Training and Development program including creation of curriculum, and the implementation of leadership training programs, workshops, customized business solutions and EntreCon®.

An avid sailor, Rachael competes in local, national, and international regattas and is the winner of the British Virgin Islands Interline Regatta, Regata-al-Sol and two-time winner of the Women's Gulf Yachting Association champion, Race for the Roses and Pensacola Yacht Club's Offshore Sailor of the Year and Sportswoman of the Year.

Rachael also makes a difference serving as a Trustee of ARC Gateway Foundation.