

Kimberly Krupa
Director, Achieve Escambia

Kimberly Krupa joined the Achieve Escambia team in July 2017. Kimberly brings more than 15 years' experience in community and coalition building, fundraising, communications, nonprofit management, executive leadership and strategic planning. Her expertise centers on creating, coaching and leading proactive, high-performing teams using collective impact strategies: building movements, collectives and collaborations that actively create the conditions for change. Born and raised in New Jersey, Kimberly moved to Louisiana in 2002 and was actively involved in rebuilding New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina. Kimberly now lives in Pensacola with her husband, Dr. Jamin Wells, and their three children.
